

For Thyself Thou hast made us, and restless our hearts until in Thee they find their ease. To late have I loved Thee, Thou Beauty ever old and ever new. Thou hast burst my bonds asunder; unto Thee will I offer up an offering of praise.

THE SOLEMNITY OF ST. AUGUSTINE OF HIPPO, B.C.D.

THE 14TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

AUGUST 29, 2010

MONICA had instilled into the heart of her son Augustine (354-430) the truths of Christian belief, but the young man fell into bad company and was drawn into heresy. At Milan he met the great bishop Ambrose, who guided his way back into the true Faith. Augustine then returned to North Africa, his birthplace, was ordained to the priesthood, then consecrated a bishop and was placed over the Episcopal See of Hippo, at the age of 41. He became the author of enduring Christian classics, and wrote a rule of religious life that strongly influenced the development of Western monasticism and spirituality. The numerous heresies of his time had in St. Augustine an untiring foe.

THE EPISTLE (SIT) II Tim. 4:1-8

The apostolate of sound knowledge and sound teaching demands the patience to endure rebuff and indifference, as well as the courage to rebuke and correct.

Performed for Christ, such conduct brings eternal joy and rest.

ALLELUIA Ps. 88:21

SEQUENCE

THE HOLY GOSPEL (STAND) Matt. 5:13-19

Throughout the centuries, God has endued His bishop and priests with wonderful gifts of intellect and holiness. These gifts are essential for the apostolic vision and leadership. Christ and His teachings are thus made vivid and inspiring for all members of the Church and for prospective converts throughout the long history of the Church.

SERMON (SIT) Subdeacon Benjamin Andersen

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME to all our visitors to Mass this morning. There are Service books in the pews for your use. While Holy Communion may only be received by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to come forward at Communion for a blessing and the pain benit—blessed bread. Please fill out one of the "visitor cards" found in the pew racks and take a moment to sign our guest book in the Narthex! Please join us for Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall (downstairs).

Orthodox Christians must be prepared for Holy Communion through Sacramental Confession, fasting, prayer, and being at peace with others. A prepared person must have been to Confession recently (frequency established by his Pastor), have abstained from food and drink from Midnight and have attended Mass regularly. Please seek and give forgiveness before receiving Communion.

SAINT AUGUSTINE CELEBRATION

SUMMER CHURCH RESPONSIBILITIES

The beautiful Colorado Summer is here! While many might be taking summer vacations, remember, we NEVER take a vacation from God. If you are going to be away on a Sunday, please let Msgr. Mangels know so that he can locate an Orthodox Church for you to attend in your destination. Also remember, that our bills continue—even while you are on vacation. Please, kindly take care of your financial commitment to the work of the Church before you go or as soon as you return.

THE CHURCH FATHERS SPEAK—What is the Church? She is the body of Christ. Join to it the Head, and you have one man: The Head and the body make up one man. Who is the head? He who was born of the Virgin Mary. ... And what is His body? It is His Spouse, that is, the Church.... The Father willed that these two, the God Christ and the Church, should be one man. All men are one man in Christ, and the unity of the Christians constitutes but one man. And this man is all men, all men are this man; for all are one, since Christ is one.

Let us rejoice and give thanks. Not only are we become Christians, but we are become Christ. My brothers, do you understand the grace of God that is given us? Wonder, rejoice, for we are made Christ! If He is the Head, and we the members, then together He and we are the whole man.... This would be foolish pride on our part, were it not a gift of his bounty. But this is what He promised by the mouth of the Apostle: "You are the body of Christ, and severally His members" (1 Cor. 12:27). St. Augustine of Hippo
